

Larimer's Bedtime Adventure

It was created by Laura Walthers and Larimer, the Tree Wizard Faerie!
www.beingenchanted.com

Music and Special Effects composed by Daniel Wheeler
www.horizpro.com

Recommended for children 3 - 9 years

Description:

Enchant your children into sleepy slumberland with this fun, colorful and adventurous soothing story. This version of A Bedtime Story; Larimer and the faeries is in PDF format. (Text only)
It is for you to download to your computer or device and follow along with the online audio file.

You can purchase 'A Bedtime Story; Larimer and the faeries' audio Mp3 version here: <https://store.cdbaby.com/cd/laurawalthers2>

The audio-only file is 26 minutes in length and can be listened to in five different parts. Larimer takes you on enchanted magical adventures in the magic forest and rides on the rainbow with the Gnomes and meets a Unicorn, Bright Star! He has to play a game and find the secret from the beautiful Faery Queen!

Table of Contents

Circle of Love

Bright Star the Unicorn

Dancing on the Rainbow

Enchanted Garden

Faery Queen

"Greetings,

Hello dear one!

My name is Larimer. I am happy to meet you. I am a magical wizard from the nature kingdom. I am here to take you on an adventure. I am here to tell you a bedtime story."

Circle of Love

Larimer: "I have come to you this night to share my heart with you. I love to share my knowledge about nature. Have you ever wondered how flowers grow or how they get their colors? Have you wondered how they burst through the unfolded petals? Like bubbles bursting in the air, their scent hugs your nose and you breathe it in. Ahhh—they smell so sweet. I can tell you how, it is really no magic. It is the Love from the faeries and beings in nature that make it happen.

Everything around you is alive with energy and love. Just like when you give your mommy or daddy a goodnight hug, it makes a circle of love between them and you. So this night I come into your room and we will create a circle of love so you can sleep in blissful peace.

All you have to do is use your imagination. Do you think you can do that? It is so easy you just see a thought in your mind and then believe it is happening. All of a sudden you will feel it in the room. I know you can't see me, but you can hear me. I would like you to imagine my presence in the room. I am standing next to your bed. I am so happy that you have opened your heart to me, because I have a lot of love to give to you. I could be a spark of light that flickers by your eye or maybe you see me as a wizard. Have you ever seen a wizard? They usually wear hats, so imagine a hat on me head. Also, I have a very special wand in my hand. It has a star of light on the end of it and it is ready to grant you a special wish.

Would you like to make a wish dear one? Faeries and wizards take wishes very seriously, so if you need a few moments I can wait for you. Imagine you are writing the wish down on a piece of silver paper and put it under your pillow. So while you are sleeping the faeries can connect with your imagination and help you make it REAL! Wishes are to help us create love between one another. Thank you and may your wish be granted!

Now, let's create a circle of love in your room, are you ready? Make sure you clear an area and put all your toys and things away. Let's stand up with your arms stretched way out to your sides and with a twinkling of an eye let's start turning around in circles. Twirl-Twirl-Twirl in the center of your room. As you are twirling I am flying around the room and following you with my magic wand—weeeee, I am making a circle of love out of colored sparks. Now lets' twirl to the right, see the sparkling lights making a circle as you dance in your room—weeeee! Now let's go the other way, here we go again—weeeeeeee! That is so much fun!

Now the room is glowing with brilliant sparkling lights. Can you feel it? It surrounds you and your bed? The love sparkles will protect you while you sleep. But before you go to sleep would you like to go on an adventure? I would love to take you to a place that is very magical and fun."

Bright Star the Unicorn

Larimer: "As the story goes my dear we are going to take a journey to a far, far away place. Are you ready for fun? Allow your mind to relax, take a deep breath in. Ahh and let it out slowly. Again take a deep breath, but this time imagine colored bubbles going into your mouth and imagine your favorite taste. Perhaps, strawberry red, peachy-orange, lemon-yellow or smooth grape going into your mouth—pop, pop, pop, pop, pop! As the taste tingles your tongue heeeee—you feel a sense of excitement—all of a sudden you are surrounded by a bubble of rainbow colors. Amazing, they are so alive and you can see them all around your body. They move with you—like giggling jello! Hee, hee—you feel safe and protected."

Larimer: "You then hear a faint sound in your head, EOEOEOEOEOEOEO! You wonder; what is that? Who is that? "Why that is my secret code to call you into my kingdom. Would you like to see where I live? I can take your hand and we can go there together. How are we going to get there? I have a magical unicorn, named Bright Star that is waiting for us."

He is so happy to join us and be our guide. I see Bright Star now. He is coming toward us. Notice how Bright Star has a blue twinkle in his eye. That is a star that helps him see the whole universe. It is his inner compass so he doesn't get lost.

Hello Bright Star, how are you today?"

Bright Star: "I am ready for an adventure. I will guide you into a faery kingdom, just hop on my back and take hold of my silky white mane on my head. It is like a very strong rope. Come on guys, let's have some magical fun!"

Larimer: "Here we go, up, up and away! Oh you didn't think we were going to travel on land did you? We are going to FLY to find the magical faery kingdom. We have to travel out of time to get there. Once you are out of time all you have to do is think of where you would like to be and magic—you are there."

Look below us, just beyond the golden bridge over there to your right. In the crystal clear water under the bridge, there are blue fish winking at us. Have you ever seen winking blue fish before? In our kingdom everyone loves to feel joy and laugh. Haa! Haaa! Ha! Ha! Ha!"

Dancing on the Rainbow

Larimer: "Would you like to go to the green forest and the magical garden? The faeries and nature beings are very excited to have us visit their kingdom. Weee the wind feels cool against our cheeks. As we dip down and come closer to the forest I can see the tops of the trees swaying back and forth together to welcome us into their forest. The tree spirits are happy to have such important guests in their forest. Bright Star, can you take us over there next to those lovely old oak trees that are all standing in a circle?"

Bright Star: "But of course, hold on!"

Larimer: "Here we go—woooo! Slow down Bright Star; take us in for a soft landing. Ahhh—thank you Bright Star for such a gentle landing, lets' hop off. Did you know that the trees are alive on Earth where you live? They love hugs and water when it is hot and dry—ahhh.

Look over yonder, the gnomes and elves are dancing on the magical rainbow! They are laughing and their colored hats are dancing on their heads! Would you like to dance with them? Okay, let's go. In the middle of the circle of trees stands this magnificent brilliant rainbow. It is so high it goes above the tall trees and you can't see where it ends. I know you are not used to stepping and dancing on a rainbow, but I assure you it will be so much fun. Are you ready? Okay, follow me. Up and away we go. It feels like we have wings, I can see the clouds up above, they are getting closer. It looks like a soft cloud of colored lights. It is sooooo beautiful. Each color has a different feeling. The red tingles your toes. The yellow-orange feels warm and soft in your tummy and the green feels like a big hug. The purple and blue makes me wonder what was on the other side of the rainbow. I know it is a little odd to be on the rainbow for the first time. I hope you are enjoying your magical rainbow—it is very important.

The reason I brought you here is to know anytime you want to come back to my kingdom all you have to do is imagine a rainbow and it will lead you there! Just use your imagination, and a spark of love and the magic—you will be there. You see the faeries and nature beings do the same thing. In order for us to visit you on earth we must imagine a rainbow and then we work in your garden or sleep on the ground at the bottom of your trees. Isn't this terrific? I am soooo happy you are brave enough to let go and share this moment with me! I love making new friends!

Yippeee!"

Larimer: "Are you ready to go to the enchanted garden? Let's slide down the rainbow and ask the magical orange dragonfly to pick us up just as we are about to land on the ground. Are you ready? Here we go. Let's wave goodbye to all the gnomes, faeries and elves dancing on the rainbow. Good bye new buddies, goodbye! Weeeeeeeeeee, oh that feels so good. My toes are tingling and my foot is too! It tickles, hee hee. Here he comes; the dragonfly is ready at the bottom of the rainbow. He has spread out his gossamer wings for us to land on. Oh, that was fantastic. Your wings are clear but very strong. I can see them twinkling in the sunlight, how brilliant you are. Your wings look like the scales of a dragon.

Could you take us to the enchanted garden? I see his eyes winking at us. He is telling us—yes—and up we go like a rocket darting into the air, hold on, he is very quick, up, up and away! I see a thick row of trees below. We have come to the edge of the oak groves and down, down, we go. Thank you dragonfly, that was a very nice ride. So long Mr. Dragonfly."

Enchanted Garden

Larimer: "The light above us in the sky is fading and getting darker. It is twilight and turning a deep blue color. So now let's go deep, deep, into the forest. It is very dark except the path at your feet and the trees are dimly lit by the full moon light."

Owl: "Hoo! Hoo! Hoo!"

Larimer: "Look up on the branch above your head, it is a white owl. He is up in the tree, he is greeting us, letting us know he is there for us, he is our guide. "Where is the enchanted garden? Can you lead us there?"

Owl: "Of course I can lead you there, but first you have to pass a test, you have to go through the door."

Larimer: "The door, what kind of door?"

Owl: "It is a faery door."

Larimer: "Faery door? I've never heard of that, what does it look like and where is it? Why, I see something down the pathway. I see this beautiful tree covered in brilliant green moss. The sky is getting dark. I see a moonbeam shining down on the door. The door is in the middle of the tree. Thank you Moon for lighting our way in the forest. Mr. Owl we can clearly see the door now."

Owl: "All you have to do is walk down the road to the door and slowly open it, this is my wish. See you—HOO-HOO-HOO, I must get back to my place, I am the greeter of this forest, if anyone else enters I must be there to meet them. Bye, bye, now—Hoo Hoo."

Larimer: "Let's walk towards the door. Oh, I see Mr. Owl perched up on his tree branch, I feel safe having Mr. Owl watching over us. Let's get closer. Oh yes, I see the door. Hmm, there are letters carved in the bark. I don't know that word—R-E-W-O-L-F.

I look at it and feel it is something that I know, perhaps it is written backwards. Hmm, if I just had a mirror. I just had a fleeting thought; I will turn my magic star wand into a mirror. I can now see the word in the mirror. The letters look different—F-L-O-W-E-R. REWOLF is backwards for 'FLOWER'. Oh yes, that must be the magic word. That must be the magic word.

Oh no, I feel the ground rumbling. The tree is opening. The door is opening in the tree. All the branches are shifting. The leaves are rustling. Oh my, what could be behind this door? The door opened and it wasn't a tree. It is another world. Can you feel it? It is alive, it is fantastic! It is beautiful.

I feel like just running in the grass, there are flowers and butterflies everywhere all different colors laughing and frolicking with one another and they can even laugh. The butterflies are actually laughing, just like me and you—ha ha—they even giggle, they are fluttering around our heads, they are fluttering around our heads, they are dancing! Ahh, I feel so wonderful here. The sunshine feels warm on my face, Amazing! There's even fish dancing in the crystal clear water. Oh my goodness, how wonderful this place is. I love to come here. It is so much fun to share it with you.

Wait, someone is singing, I can hear it on the wind—hum, hum, hum, hum. Let's follow the wind. I feel the gentle breeze kissing my face. I hear the sounds, it is very slow and very beautiful, hmm hmm hmmm hmm hum.

Lets' hold hands and instead of walking lets skip together—doot-doodleit-do-do-do-do. Skipping is better, now we can skip and hum too.

Look over there between the trees. I see sparkling lights dancing in the air. Oh how wonderful the faeries are weaving a path of light for us, it is for us to walk on and lead us to the Faery Queen. The rainbows colors are so brilliant. They are creating a heart shape in the middle. Did you know that faeries love to create hearts? That is a symbol of their love! Ohhhh, I am feeling very warm inside, I love this magical path way. Thank you faeries for being such great helpers. We can trust you will show us the way."

Faery Queen

Oh, look, another door, lets gently and quietly walk towards the door, there are no words on this door. This door is golden but as you look a certain way you can see beyond it—sort of. I will gently knock. Oh my, the door is opening and inside there is another world. It is a magical kingdom of plants, flowers and crystals. Fantastic, all these beautiful flowers, they have faces in them, and they smell—ahhhhhhhhh. It makes me sleepy to smell them. They are so wonderful, its smells like candy or mommy's cookies, or fresh baked pies, oooohhhh wow, ahhhh it smells so yummy. Let's go lie down on the beautiful bed of soft pink rose petals in the rose garden. My whole body is getting sleepy from the love of this magical place. Don't you just feel like lying down right now?"

Faery Queen: "Not yet!"

Larimer: "Greetings, dear Queen. Oh my, you are so beautiful. You are the most beautiful faery I have ever seen. Your light form glows even in the sunlight. Your blue-violet eyes sparkle and your lavender gown glimmers in the sunlight like millions of stars. I see the glowing wand in your hand. Your gossamer wings reflect all the colors from the crystals and the flowers. The reflections are dancing all around us. Amazing!"

Faery Queen: "Hello, how are you fellow travelers, what has brought you here dear ones?"

Larimer: "The owl told us to go through the door to find the enchanted garden. He is very wise, you know. He knows what to tell us and what to do. And then we made the choice to go through the door and heard this lovely singing. We heard it in the wind and just couldn't help ourselves. We had to listen to it and follow it. Besides, I wanted to bring my dear new friend to visit the enchanted garden. Do we have to leave?"

Faery Queen: "Your friend is here to learn the secret."

Larimer: "What secret dear Queen?"

Faery Queen: "You will never really leave, even when you go back to your mother, father or guardian. Of course you have to go back, but first, we are going to play a game."

Larimer: "A game, we love games! Oh please, please, what are we to do? What are we to do?"

Faery Queen: "Oh, don't mind Mr. Bee, he is just having some fun. He is curious as to what we are to do next. Hello, Mr. Bee. Yes, Mr. Bee is important in this kingdom. He helps all the flowers pollinate and grow."

Larimer: "Oh that is so nice, thank you Mr. Bee. What is this game we are to do?"

Faery Queen: "First, together think of a word that makes you feel—good."

Larimer: "Hmm, Love, you think Love? Yes, Love."

Faery Queen: "Oh, that is perfect, that is very good, that is very good. Now let's think of a way you can compare it to a color."

Larimer: "Hmm, pink, oh, that's for girls, but that's okay it feels good to go with love, kind of a pinkish red."

Faery Queen: "Very good a pinkish red, I like that. Now let's make the color become the love feeling and put it into a gift."

Larimer: "Hmm, a gift. Wow, we don't know, we'll have to think about it. Let's see how about, I know, we've have got it! Yes! Yes!"

Faery Queen: "What dear ones?"

Larimer: "We can just imagine a pinkish red color and every time we just think of the color we think of love and then WE become the gift—and anybody around us will feel our love."

Faery Queen: "Oh, oh, oh, that is perfect. I knew you both could do it. You are so good at these games. Larimer I am glad you brought your friend to the enchanted garden."

Larimer: "Thank you—hee hehe!"

Faery Queen: "Oh that is so good, perfect, perfect, perfect. Alright now, that was an excellent game. Now over by the magical pond look at the bed of pinkish red rose petals you wished to lay on when you first arrived. They have the same color you just imagined. So all the rose petals are made of love and now imagine your bed at home is made of rose petals and they are stacked real high so you can just fall down and all you will feel is the soft shape of the petals. Ahhh and they smell so beautiful and you love the color and it is so cuddly and comforting. And now lie down on the petals and fall fast, fast asleep. I take my faery wand dear ones and gently make a wish.

I wish that you always feel love in your hearts. You are so special, you came from love and you are here to bring and be loved. The secret is—we are all One!

Sweet dreams dear one, sweet dreams. I give you my blessings from the faeries and all of the kingdoms. Goodnight sweet one. Goodnight!"